What's the deal with loyalty?

Is it about acquiescence? Partnership? Power?

Maybe it's an over-used or outdated term. Perhaps what we're looking for is positive relational reciprocity.

The most recent article, "The Loyal Roil" discusses the power struggles and structures that exist and tip the scales with respect to loyalty at 360-Clarity.com/blog

Juneteenth was very recently recognized as a Federal holiday. For one, I don't recall hearing about Juneteenth until a staff development just after the turn of the century. I was 2 degrees into my education at that point.

As we all learn more about the history and meaning of Juneteenth, one place to start is to understand symbolism.
